

LOUISIANA'S REUNION,

Miss. Crop and Georgia Expected to Be Present.

The anniversary of the battle of Lone Jack will be celebrated tomorrow by the annual picnic on the grounds near Lone Jack. Lone Jack is in the southeast part of this county. The battle was fought twenty-eight years ago, and resulted in a Confederate victory. It is expected that Governor Francis, Mayor of Mills and Congressman Crop of Georgia will be present to-morrow.

Speeches will be made and many persons from Kansas City will be present. Lone Jack is not on the railroad and is reached by conveyance taken from Lee's Summit or Pleasant Hill.
