

Low Jack's Feast.

The annual Low Jack's people Saturday was, as it always is, attended by a large part of the farmers of Jackson county, their wives, their daughters, their cousins and the usual. The day was spent in eating chicken and the other usual people festivities, and in the afternoon Congressmen Tarnary and Crisp addressed the crowd. Mr. Crisp was the speaker of the day and his address was pathetically received.