On this 10th day of August 1869 before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for the County and State above named, personally appeared Mary Ann Clark and Mary Ann Clark, of Van Buren County, of Iowa and State of Iowa and

County of Van Buren and State of Iowa, respectable and credible witnesses, and after being duly sworn, depose and say:—We have been well and intimately acquainted with Mrs. Mary Ann Clark widow of Robert Brown and mother of George Brown deceased soldier, late of Co. A, 1st Reg't, Iowa Volunteers, for the last 12 years, and also with the deceased soldier above named, for the last 12 years. That the said soldier left surviving him neither wife, child or children, and 1 sister under sixteen years of age at the date of his death. [If the soldier left either sister or sisters under sixteen years of age, give names and ages at time of his death.]

That the said soldier before his enlistment lived with his mother and aided and assisted her in her support, in the following manner:

In the year prior to his death which occurred on Aug. 1st he father Robert Brown had been unable to support his wife by manual labor being afflicted with pulmonary consumption, and for 6 years before entering George Brown was the chief supporter & support of his parents, during that time, given them nearly all of his pay earned a few hundred of $1200 helped and loaned they needed and thus he mainly produced the subsistence and maintenance food, clothing fuel & other necessaries of life, and of his pay he retained only enough to buy himself plain & cheap clothes, all the rest he regularly gave to his parents for their sole me & benefit. Neither his father or mother had any share of it, some articles of their own & his work, were possession of one Real Estate and of personal property owned. During the time he aided them, I was a cash worth $1000

 1 yd. of cotton worth $75⁰⁰ 1 yd. of wool worth $15⁰⁰ 1 yd. of linen worth $20⁰⁰ 5 bags of rice worth $20⁰⁰ & household goods worth $50⁰⁰ The yearly value of all the separate things Brown gave her presents for by year before including interest average $120⁰⁰ per year.

After the soldier entered the service he aided his mother in her support, in the following manner:—
 [Here state just the mother did to aid her mother in her support after his enlistment. If he was her father, state how much and how often, &c.]
 As I believe he did not board his parents regularly often allowed every day being a good share of his pay as he received, but some money he left up when a few days. It is known of others that he did have money in some quantity for $100 & $35⁰⁰ and according to what he received of himself, I only believe he left a good sum of time when or frequently, a few times of it even often.

That the said Mrs. Amye Brown is still a widow. (Here state whether the widow has property—If she has, describe it, and what she is now doing to support herself.)
 She has since her son's death had nearly all of her personal property & help support herself, earning some only 1 dollar worth $75⁰⁰ 1 cow worth $20⁰⁰ & about $40⁰⁰ worth of household goods. Besides this the Real Estate property of her son collected by her, has been in Chief possession & support, she depending otherwise on her own skill, exertions & the help & assistance of her children will be afforded her. She has never in course of her name had that

That we reside as above stated, and are not interested in Mrs. Amye Brown claim for a pension, or concerned in its prosecution.
