*Lucy A. Doolin was my grandmother and we lived together in Detroit, Mich. She died on Jan. 23rd after several months illness. She is buried in the family lot at Dublin, Wayne Co., Indiana. She was a mother to me from the time I was a year old as my parents died.
She took the best of care of me + loved me to the exclusion of every other thought, then, at the time she needed me most, I had a nervous breakdown, heart trouble and* double pneumonia. I failed her at the last and was unable to give her the loving attention she deserved: Oh, if grieving afterwards could only make amends!! My husband died nine years ago, I have a daughter whom I am trying to put through school on a salary I receive from working in the Postoffice here.

Lucy A. Develin left no other near relatives. There are two nieces living in Los Angeles.
I received no check from the Government after Nov. 4th 1918 and, of course, would have returned it if I had.

Yours truly

On the Musters Roll as 2^d Lieut. Sub Capt.
Capt's report dated April 5 1865.

Captain's Certificate gives him the rank

There is nothing to show that he was not mustered in and as he served eleven months as 2^d Lieut, the presumption is that he was.
Evidence on this point can easily be obtained.

Claim is allowed at July 30th pms.
