 died in the Service of the Government, and that the said Nancy See was the Mother of the said Benjamin See, and that the said Benjamin See left neither widow or minor children, and that they were also personally well acquainted with the said Benjamin See. Deponents further say that the husband of the said Nancy See is dead, and deponents believe he has been dead about twenty six years.

Deponents further state that the said Nancy See is upwards of seventy years old, that the said Benjamin See had resided to their knowledge, many years with his Mother the said Nancy See, and had maintained his Mother the said Nancy See that Nancy See had no other son or person to Support that said Benjamin had supported to our knowledge about sixteen years, her other sons being married and not living with her.

Deponents further say that said Nancy Lee has a small house in the town of St Francisville County of Clark and State Missouri which she purchased with money furnished her by the said Benjamin Lee from his wages (mainly) as a Soldier, for which she paid about one hundred and fifty dollars, which together with a little personal property barely sufficient for housekeeping, probably of the value of fifty dollars, constitutes her whole property.

Deponents state that for support she was wholly dependant upon her son the aforesaid Benjamin Lee deceased.

Deponents further state that the husband of the said Nancy Lee died in the State of Virginia.
